

Quick Lock HD front wings have two holes

Compatibility:

Standard wings have four holes so they will fit on the Quick Lock HD front piece without issues but they will leave two redundant holes.

Quick Lock wings have one hole so they will fit on the HD front piece without issues. The user may drill their own second hold if they wish to use the security bolt feature.

Quick Lock front wings have one hole

Compatibility:

Standard wings have four holes so they will fit on the Quick Lock front piece without issues but they will leave three redundant holes.

Quick Lock HD wings have two holes so they will fit on the Quick Lock front piece without issues but they will leave one redundant hole.

Standard front wings have four holes

Compatibility:

Quick Lock wings have one hole so they will fit on the Standard front piece but the user will need to drill three extra holes.

Quick Lock HD wings have two holes so they will fit on the standard front piece without issues but the user will need to drill two extra holes